

All About Recital

Triple Threat Gazette May 2010

Tickets:

Purchase and pick up tickets starting Saturday, May 15 from 10:00am-2:00pm. Please see attached policy and order form. Each student performing receives 4 free tickets. Please remember there will be NO TICKETS available to be sold at the door on WSSU campus!!!

DVD's:

You may purchase a DVD for $45.00. Friday Night, Saturday Matinee & Saturday Night performances are available on DVD, so please specify which performance when you fill out your order form. Personal videotaping and flash photography will not be allowed at the performances, because this is dangerous to our performers.

Recital T-Shirts

Orders will be DUE by Saturday, May 15! Get your order in now! The shirt will have our theme, Flashback (10th anniversary), on the front and the names of the performing students on the back. Orders must be turned in on time. No extra shirts will be ordered and late orders are not an option. If you need an order form, please see the office.

Names/Costumes:

It is very important to make sure that the student's name is in all shoes and costumes. This is especially important at performance time so that the student has what they need to go on stage, as well as, we can identify it from other students. Please check your child's shoes to ensure they fit properly for the performance.

SENIORS!! (and accomplished performers)

Seniors, please turn in to the office your information about what your plans are for next year, by June 1. Also, all students turn in any performance opportunities that you have been a part of this past year. This information will be put into the Recital Program.

Picture Week:

Picture Week is May 10-14. REMEMBER TO BRING YOUR COSTUME! Have your hair and make up fixed as we discussed in class. The photographer will take individual pictures, if you want, and take a group shot.

Dress Rehearsal

Dress rehearsal is Thursday, June 24 from 2:00pm - 9:30pm. It will be held at the Williams Auditorium at Winston-Salem State University. All students must attend dress rehearsal in order to perform in the recital. It is very important to attend to ensure that everyone will have a successful performance. Parents can drop their child/children off back stage. Parents are not allowed to stay backstage. There will then be signs leading to the backstage area where performers will stay. There will be assigned teachers and helpers to then take the students to their proper dressing area. During both the dress rehearsal and the recital there will be teachers and helpers assigned to supervise and assist your children. Once your child has practiced each piece they are in, at Dress Rehearsal, they may be picked up. Attached is a Dress Rehearsal Schedule. Please be at the Williams Auditorium at WSSU at the beginning of your scheduled time slot, dressed and ready.

Beginner's Intimate Recital

The students performing in this recital need to be in the Williams Auditorium at WSSU on Saturday Morning, June 26 at 9:00am. Students will then perform at 10:00am for any family and friends. This performance is free for anyone who would like to attend. Students performing are beginning voice, piano, guitar, violin, drum, and dance students.

Recital, Recital, Recital!!

Recital Dates are June 25-26. The recital on Friday Night and Saturday Night will be held at 7pm. The performers need to be dropped off backstage by 6pm. The Saturday Matinee performance will be at 2:00pm and performers will need to be backstage by 1:00pm. There will be teachers and helpers to help get your child where they need to be, as well as, supervise and assist them backstage. All performers must stay backstage during the recital. At the Friday and Saturday evening performances the Creative Movement students will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during 1st intermission. 5 & 6 year old students will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during the 2nd intermission. All remaining children will be picked up backstage after the show. At the Saturday Matinee performance the Creative Movement students will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during 1st intermission. All remaining students will be picked up backstage after the show. If your child wishes to enjoy the rest of the performance, they may sit on the lap of an adult or if there is a seat available with you, they may take a seat there.

Do's and Don'ts of Recital. Please Review with Child!!!

- No underwear under costumes
- No nail polish on fingers or toes
- No jewelry
- No gum
- No Sodas allowed backstage. You may want to bring a water bottle and a non-messy snack. We do not want food or drink to be spilled on costumes or in the Dressing Room
- Hair and Make-up fixed as specified in class
- Performers should have pink leather ballet shoes, black jazz shoes, and black tap shoes. Refer to your costume sheet.
- Make sure your shoes are in good condition and fit.
- Make sure you have all the pieces to your costumes. If you lose something there are no extras so you may not be able to perform.
- Make sure your name is in all of your shoes and costume pieces.
- Always act appropriately on and off stage.
- Please be quiet on and off stage.
- Stretch and warm-up before you perform
- If you are not dressing or helping a younger class, wait in your dressing area out of the other performers way. We have some students who have quick changes.
- No performers should be in the audience except for the classes that were released at intermission. Those performers released at intermission that return to the audience to enjoy the rest of the show MUST be out of costume and in regular street clothes.
- Performers need to be responsible and organized!! Keep all of your things together
- No Parents backstage. Drop off students at the designated area. Just follow the signs. There are teachers and helpers responsible for the younger classes.
- You will pick your children up backstage at intermission or after the show. At the Friday and Saturday evening performances the Creative Movement students will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during 1st intermission. 5 & 6 yr olds will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during 2nd intermission. All remaining students will be picked up backstage after the show. At the Saturday Matinee performance the Creative Movement students will be released at the edge of the stage to a parent during 1st intermission. All remaining students will be picked up backstage after the show.
- Most importantly work as a team and be respectful of everyone!

These things will help to organize and provide a successful and professional performance atmosphere for each student. If you have any questions please see Holly, Kim, or Office Staff; email us or drop a note in our box.
